Nviron addressed critical IT issues for Vitaflo in 2019 after poor service from their previous provider, implementing proactive support for smoother operations.

Since then, our partnership has blossomed into Nviron delivering several strategic initiatives to improve IT security and continuity.

Business challenges

Stretched Internal IT Team

The internal IT team focused on user support and applications, making infrastructure management and continuity a challenge.

Complex Acquisition Integration

Integrating newly acquired entities into the existing IT infrastructure came with various challenges, including the requirement for European IT Support.

Evolving Business Continuity

The existing business continuity plan needed updating to align with modern business requirements and ensure resilience.

Business outcomes

Empowered IT Team

Nviron managed Vitaflo's infrastructure, freeing the IT team to focus on user support and drive continuity and excellence.

Seamless Integration of Acquired Entities

Helping with the integration of new entities into their existing IT infrastructure, ensuring established and robust European support to ensure smooth operations and minimise disruptions.

Modernising Business Continuity

Working with Vitaflo's IT team to update the continuity plan, enhancing resilience and readiness for potential disruptions.

Nviron & Vitaflo's relationship has been a thriving success since onboarding 6 years ago, showing the value of a trusted and collaborative partnership.

"I love working with Nviron because of the strong relationships I've built across their business over six years. Their proactive approach, regular catch-ups, and close proximity ensure smooth operations. I highly recommend them for their consistent delivery and genuine collaborative partnership."
